FEED TEAM RACE RULES

1. Driver cannot touch bales. 2. Race is one lap; bales are on the plywood at start of race. 3. Race pattern as per drawing and must be followed for both laps. 4. Horses and sleigh must be in the hitching area with the team's horse's heads behind the start line prior the start of the race. 5. Time starts when the first bale is handled (helper's gloves or body touches any part of the first bale). 6. Time stops when front of sleigh passes over the finish line after completing the 2 laps. 7. Teams must be kept to a walk or a trot. 8. Teams must be completely stopped when bales are being loaded or being taken off of sled. 9. The driver and helper must both ride on the sled except when loading or unloading the feed. Both must be on the sled before the team starts and stops at each stop including the start of the race and the finish of the race. 10. First lap, bales are picked up, bales must be handled one at a time. 11. You may stack bales however you wish. 12. Team runs pattern as shown, straight down on the outside of ring, around cone, then straight back again on outside of ring when coming home. 13. Bales are dropped off, again bales must be handled one at a time. 14. Bales must be placed neatly back on the plywood, 3 bales per plywood.

Fastest time wins.
